ROBERT O. BAILEY

His Running Away Brought Him to
The U. S. Treasury.—Assistant Secretary U. S. Treasury.

This story is not told to induce any boy to run away from home. Most boys would have gone to the bad instead of going all to the good as did Robert O. Bailey.

About 30 years ago a boy with a tear-stained face dodged the brakeman of a freight and started "West" from Cleveland. He was fleeing the wrath of a teacher who insisted he should absorb a certain amount of knowledge each day.

He got out of a freight car in Chicago. Hunger drove him to selling papers and shining shoes. Necessity taught him to save the hard-earned pennies. By the time he was 10 he was traveling with a blind evangelist and by precept was able in a few years to deliver a sermon when occasion demanded.

When the evangelist died Bailey went to work on a newspaper. His good work sent him to Washington as a special correspondent and eventually he became the representative assigned to the White House by a big press association. After serving as private secretary to Secretary of the Treasury MacVeigh, he was appointed to his present position.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

No ball game yesterday. Wet grounds. Hang onto those rain checks.

Christmas Day is one of the four holidays in the year when the Bishop Museum is closed.

The weekly meeting of the board of harbor commissioners will be held tomorrow morning at the usual hour.

The governor has approved the amended charter of incorporation of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Honolulu.

The Modern Order of Phoenix will hold a special meeting and initiation at their home tomorrow night. All newly-elected candidates and members are urged to attend.

Land Commissioner Joshua D. Tucker will sell at public auction next Wednesday noon a land remnant at Napoopoo, of Kona, Hawaii. Preparation is in progress also for a large land drawing which will be held next Monday, December 28, for the homesteading of about 20 lots below the pali on Windward Oahu and six lots on Kauai.

There will be a midnight celebration of the holy communion Christmas eve at St. Clement's church, Wilder avenue, Punahou, commencing at 11 o'clock. The service will be choral, a feature being the singing of Christmas carols.

The police today are seeking a man who is alleged to have entered a Japanese store near the corner of King and Liliha streets, from which place dry goods and other articles to the value of $400 were taken. Captain of Detectives McDuffie despatched two officers upon the trail of a suspect who is believed to have proceeded to the country to dispose of the property.

Jane Mercer has been given permission to withdraw as guardian of the persons of Herbert Earle, John Fraderick and Dorothy Marion Mercer, minors, Circuit Judge Whitney appointing Dr. George F. Straub in her stead, to serve without bond. Mrs.
Mercer asked that this change be made because she desires to bring action to quiet title to her home, Nanea Villa, on Reservoir avenue, and the three children will be named as co-defendants.

FIGHT OVER PEARS, AKANA LANDS 'HOMER,' CONVICTED BY JURY

Lang Akana, the baseball player, and S. L. Akana, his brother, were convicted by a jury in Circuit Judge Ashford's court this morning of assault and battery. The couple will be sentenced next Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

The fight occurred early last June, at the height of the fruit—and particularly the pear—season, and was over some of the delectable pears grown in the Akana house yard on Kukui street. The tree hangs over the fence into the yard of one Wong Chin Yuen. Wong was accused by S. L. Akana of spearing specimens of the fruit, and in the fight which ensued Lang, the husky baseball star, was called upon for assistance. He lended a "homer" that nearly "did for"
Wong.

What is declared as a record shipment of mail from the mainland to the islands in a single bottom is due to arrive at the port at an early hour tomorrow morning in the Matson steamer Wilhelmina. This vessel steamed from San Francisco with more than 750 sacks of mail for the islands. The vessel is bringing about 100 cabin passengers, while several thousand tons of freight will be discharged at Honolulu and Hilo.

Kukui Prepared for Farewell Voyage.
The United States lighthouse tender Kukui, which has been stationed in Hawaiian waters for a number of years, has been prepared for a long cruise to Puget Sound, where the vessel is destined to remain permanently.
In the departure of the Kukui, which may steam for the north Pacific today, a fine vessel, admirably equipped for the class of work assigned to it by the federal government, will be withdrawn from island waters. The Kukui is rated as one of the largest vessels in the United States light-house service. A united effort upon the part of the commercial and legislative bodies in the northwest for the transfer of the Kukui has succeeded in taking the vessel from Hawaii while it is stated that a smaller and much older craft will be sent here to look after the several light stations.

Bad weather met some hundred miles off the islands will delay the arrival of the Pacific Mail liner Mongolia, now steaming from the Orient with about 200 passengers and 1700 tons of cargo for Honolulu. The vessel is expected to arrive here tomorrow afternoon. It is the present intention to despatch the vessel for San Francisco Wednesday morning.

The American-Hawaiian freighter Dakota was supplied with a full cargo of island products before its depart for New York by the way of the Panama canal on Saturday evening.
